

BOARD SELF EVALUATION POLICY

Policy

The Miles College Board of Trustees participates in self-evaluation of its function and effectiveness annually.

Procedure

- The Board Development Committee, in collaboration with the Board Chair, develops a survey tool based on board functions.
- The Board Development Committee distributes the survey tool to all trustees immediately following the Fall Board of Trustees Meeting.
- The Board Development Committee receives the results, and in collaboration with the Board Chair, prepares a report for the Trustees.
- The Board Development Committee, in collaboration with the Board Chair, plans a Board educational session at the next fall meeting based on the information from the self-evaluation survey.
